THE GREAT WUNDER OF THE NINETEENTH CENTURY, Pref. Wood's Hair Resterative Says the St. Louis. (Mo.) "Democrat." Below, we publish a letter to Dr. Wood, of this city, from a gentlemne in Maine, which speaks glowingly of the superior merits of his hair tonic. Such evidence must have its effect, when con-ref from a reliable source. If certificates are guar. 100 of truth the Dr. necus no encoudams, nor usel 5 patery from the press:

Professor O. J. Wood & Co.: Professor O. J. Wood & Co.: Gentlemen: Having my attention called a few months since to the highly beneficial freets of your hair restorative, I was induced to make application hair restorative, I was induced to make application of it upon my own bair, which had become quite gray; probably one-third white; my whiskers were of the same character. Some three months since i procured a bottle of your hair restorative, and used it. I show found it was proving what I had wished. I used it about twice a week. I have since procured another bottle, of which I have used some. I can now certify to the world that the gray or white hair has to-tally disappeared, both on no best to the start when the same and the same a tify to the world that the gray or white hair has totally disappeared, both on my head and face, and my hair has resumed its intural coloriand I believe more soft and glossy than it has been before for twenty five years. I am now sixty years old; my good wife at the age of fifty two, has used it with same effect.

The above notice I deem due to you for your valuable discovery. I am assured that whoever will sightly use, as the directions, will not have occasion rable discovery. I am assured that whoever will rightly use, as per directions, will not have occasion to contradict my statements. I am a citizen of this city and a resident here for the last fifteen years, and am known to nearly every one here and adjoining towns. Any use you may make of the above, with my name attached, is at your service, as I wish to preserve the hemities of nature in others as well as myself. I am, truly, yours; A C. RAYMOND.
